Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

This is just a short note to express to you our sincere thanks for honouring us with your presence at the opening of the STERN exhibit on Monday.

We are indeed very fortunate to have such expressions of your "weakness" for UNICEF and the work it is doing! Your kind words about UNICEF and the compelling appeal for the world's most precious resource will, I feel sure, have a strong and lasting impact on those present. You may also like to know that our German-speaking committees are very grateful for your remarks in German which will be used on tape for television and radio throughout Austria, Switzerland and the Federal Republic of Germany.

With the best of wishes and my profound thanks,

Sincerely,

Henry R. Labrousse

CHILDREN'S DELEGATION TO RING UNITED NATIONS PEACE BELL 3 OCTOBER IN FIRST OBSERVANCE OF UNIVERSAL CHILDREN'S DAY AT UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS

(The following is reproduced as received from UNICEF.)

A delegation composed of a half dozen youngsters in national costume from the far-flung corners of the world and representing all the world's children will jointly ring the United Nations Peace Bell at a special ceremony Monday, 3 October, between 1 and 1:30 p.m. The bell-ringing will mark the first observance at United Nations Headquarters of Universal Children's Day -- a day observed in 124 countries around the world. The children's delegation made up of primary school children at the United Nations International School will also offer a special meditation for children from the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Among the United Nations leaders who will make brief statements before the ceremony are: Ferdinand Leopold Oyono, Permanent Representative of the United Republic of Cameroon to the United Nations and Chairman of UNICEF's Executive Board; Mrs. Sadako Ogata, Mission of Japan and UNICEF Programme Committee Chairman and Henry R. Labouisse, UNICEF Executive Director.

While Universal Children's Day was first celebrated in October 1953, the United Nations General Assembly passed a resolution in 1954 urging that the Day be celebrated world-wide.

The Peace Bell, a gift of the Japanese people to the United Nations in 1954, was partly cast from coins contributed by children of 60 nations. It weighs 256 lbs., and is housed in a traditional Japanese pagoda made of cypress built in the traditional style of a Shinto shrine. One side bears upraised Japanese characters meaning: "Long Live Absolute World Peace."

A meeting for non-governmental organization representatives will precede the Peace Bell ceremony on the theme of this year's Universal Children's Day: "Water for the Children of the World."

TO: Mr. R. Ahmed, Executive Assistant

SUBJECT: Request for participation of Secretary-General in observance of Universal Children's Day

DATE: 23 August 1977

FILE NO.: NGO/81/77

The Non-Governmental Organizations Committee on UNICEF is sponsoring an observance of Universal Children's Day at the United Nations Headquarters, Monday, 3 October 1977. As you know, General Assembly resolution 836 (IX) of 14 December 1954 established Universal Children's Day as "a day of world-wide fraternity and understanding".

Some 124 countries now observe Universal Children's Day, most of them on the first Monday in October. The observance each year focuses on a special item: the 1977 theme is Water for the Children of the World. The NGO Committee on UNICEF, which has a membership of 102 international non-governmental organizations in consultative status with UNICEF, feels that it is desirable to also have an observance at United Nations Headquarters and has planned a programme in consultation with the UNICEF secretariat.

..... Attached is the tentative programme. You will note that it ends with a ceremony at the Peace Bell from 1:00 to 1:15. The Committee hopes very much that the Secretary-General can be present at this ceremony and make a brief statement. Members of the press services and other media will be invited to cover the ceremony which will include children representing the six continents.

We would appreciate it if the Secretary-General finds it possible to participate in this way. I shall be glad to hear from you on this.

Dear Mr. Secretary-General:

It was a pleasure seeing you again and particularly under such positive circumstances. It is a pleasure and a privilege to have an opportunity to share in UNICEF's challenge to improve the quality of life for millions of children around the world. We will do everything possible to inform and educate, and raise money so that your efforts can be even more productive.

Thank you for your warm hospitality on Tuesday, and please extend my thanks to members of your staff who were so gracious.

Best wishes for continued good health and fulfillment in your challenge. I look forward to seeing you again soon.

"Dear Sergio," - by hand

Thank you for your letter of 6 September 1977, in which you kindly convey the invitation of His Excellency Ambassador Azeredo da Silveira, the Brazilian Minister for External Relations, asking me to attend ceremonies on 27 September honouring Pele for his work on behalf of UNICEF.

I very much appreciate this invitation and will certainly endeavour to join you for the presentation of the award by the US Committee for UNICEF. However, as you know, I am normally expected to be present when the Heads of Delegations address the General Assembly, during the general debate, and moreover, numerous meetings with Foreign Ministers are scheduled for this date. I am sure you will understand that I may, consequently, only be able to join you quite briefly, depending upon my commitments.

As you may be aware, Pelé, the Brazilian soccer player, is retiring shortly. During the week of Monday, the 26th of September to Friday, the 30th - the eve of his last game - several functions will take place in New York to honour his outstanding career.

The US Committee for UNICEF is planning to present Pelé with an award in recognition of his work in the promotion of UNICEF's objectives, the latest being his initiative to donate part of the receipts of his last match to that Committee. The award will be presented to him at the West Terrace, UN Headquarters, on Tuesday, the 27th of September, at 4:30 p.m.

The Brazilian Minister for External Relations, Ambassador Azeredo da Silveira, will be the host on that occasion and has asked me to invite you, in his name, to be present at the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception. We hope you will be able to attend.

SECRETARY-GENERAL EXTENDS APPOINTMENT OF HENRY R. LABOUISSÉ
AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF UNICEF

Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim, after consultation with the Chairman of the Executive Board of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), has extended the contract of Henry R. Labouisse as Executive Director of UNICEF for a further period of two years from 1 January 1978.

The Chairman of the Executive Board of UNICEF recently conveyed to the Secretary-General the views of many members of the Board that continuation of Mr. Labouisse in his present post until the end of 1979 would contribute significantly to the successful preparations for the International Year of the Child proclaimed by the General Assembly for 1979.

The Secretary-General greatly appreciates the valuable work that Mr. Labouisse has performed during his tenure as Executive Director of UNICEF, and is gratified that Mr. Labouisse has agreed to continue in his present post until the end of 1979.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DANNY KAYE TO RECEIVE UNICEF AWARD

Danny Kaye will receive the UNICEF Award for Distinguished Service at the International Level at the United Nations Headquarters on Tuesday April 26.

The ceremony will take place in the office of the Secretary-General on the 38th floor of the UN building. Present at the ceremony will be Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim, UNICEF Executive Director Henry R. Labouisse, and US Ambassador Andrew Young.

Kaye's relationship with UNICEF began in 1953. In 24 years he has made films about children and the work of UNICEF, undertaken information and promotion tours and acted as Goodwill Ambassador for UNICEF (see attached for more details). The UNICEF Award was instituted last December to mark its 30th anniversary and is awarded for distinguished volunteer service to UNICEF.

The award, a golden statuette showing an adult with a child locking arms, was designed by the late Kurt Plowitz, an American artist of Czechoslovakian descent. The design was named "Father of the Man", symbolizing the eternal concern of adults for children.

SUBJECT: Presentation of Award to Danny Kaye

On the occasion of its 30th Anniversary last November, UNICEF gave a number of awards to individuals who, on a voluntary basis, had made outstanding contributions to UNICEF's work. As you know, much of UNICEF's popular support depends on the work of volunteers - ranging from public celebrities to school-age children.

One of the first chosen for an award was Danny Kaye, who has been associated with UNICEF as an Ambassador of goodwill for twenty-four years. Unfortunately, because of scheduling difficulties, we have not yet arranged a presentation ceremony. We would now like to plan this for the latter days of April or early days of May.

It would be a great honour for UNICEF, and Mr. Kaye personally, if you would agree to be present at an awards luncheon which could be arranged on a date convenient to you during that period. If you agree in principle, we will work out the details with your office. I do hope you will be able to spare this time from your busy schedule.

Dear Rafee,

I am enclosing herewith the following:

... 1. Memorandum addressed to the Secretary-General asking if he would attend a luncheon which I will host, as part of a ceremony to give an award to Danny Kaye. I should have talked to the Secretary-General about this personally, but we have only just learned the time when Kaye can be in New York, and I am about to take off on a trip from which I will return on April 21. Consequently, if you could take this up with the S/G, and if he agrees, I will have Jack Ling, the Director of our Information Division, get in touch with you concerning further details.

... 2. I am leaving on 29th for Paris, to call on some governments and to attend the ACC. I shall then go on for some field visits in West Africa. I am enclosing a copy of my itinerary.

STATEMENT BY SECRETARY-GENERAL AT UNICEF PLEDGING CONFERENCE

Following is the text of a statement by Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim at the 1976 United Nations Pledging Conference of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), held at Headquarters:

I am very pleased to have the opportunity of opening this third pledging conference for the United Nations Children's Fund. UNICEF was established three decades ago with the role of providing emergency supplies of food, medicine and clothing to children suffering in the wake of history's most destructive war. Over the years it adapted its operations to the expanded tasks and long-term needs of children in the developing world. Today, UNICEF is contributing in 102 countries and territories to maternal and child health, child nutrition, education and training, social services, and improvement of water supplies. It also conducts relief and rehabilitation operations in disaster areas.

But beyond these continuing programmes, UNICEF is pioneering an integrated approach to the delivery of social services for children which is now in operation in some 30 developing countries. This is known as the Basic Services system. In essence, Basic Services is designed to stimulate self-help and organize human resources for economic and social progress in areas affecting children. It engages the peoples of rural settlements and urban neighbourhoods in planning the programme, establishing priorities, and conducting projects. Basic Services is not a substitute for other activities to promote development and it does not imply a reallocation of development resources. It is a concept and a system for integrating nutritional, health, educational and other programmes and activities so they are mutually reinforcing. I believe that Basic Services can make an important contribution to the design of a new international economic order, and it is appropriate that UNICEF is fostering this approach.

I take it there is no need in this group to elaborate on the dimensions of the need for services affecting the well-being of children: less than

4 November 1976

10 per cent of the rural population of developing countries lives within walking distance of a national health facility of any kind; some 85 per cent of these people do not have access to safe drinking water; nearly 100 million children in developing countries suffer from some degree of malnutrition, and less than half the children of school age are attending school. In global terms these facts are so shocking that solutions may appear to be hopeless. But in local terms -- the level at which the Basic Services approach is applied -- the problems are reduced to a manageable scale. Indeed, this approach depends upon the talents of ordinary men and women as the primary resource for the stimulation of basic development at the village and neighbourhood level. Thus people are seen to be both the end and the means of the development process.

Perhaps the most striking thing about the whole UNICEF experience is precisely this emphasis on people. It reminds us that the whole purpose of economic and social development is to improve the quality of the lives of individual human beings. And UNICEF's principal constituency -- children under fifteen -- is, after all, nearly half the population of the developing world. Moreover, it is that part of the population which will be in charge when we enter the next century.

As you know, the UNICEF Executive Board has recommended a target, to be reached as soon as possible, of $200 million in annual revenue from all sources -- a target which I hope the General Assembly will confirm at its present session. Given the scope and urgency of the need and given the solid record of achievement by UNICEF, I am confident that your response at this pledging conference will be as generous as possible.

UNITED NATIONS, NEW YORK

29 October 1976

Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

Thank you for your letter of 4 October 1976 and the attached copy of a letter from the Permanent Mission of Malawi to the United Nations, as well as of your reply dated 15 September 1976.

I appreciate very much your bringing this matter to my attention; in consultation with our field office, we have examined what additional assistance UNICEF could provide to Malawi to help meet some of the needs of children. The most recent allocation for Malawi was approved by the Executive Board of UNICEF in May of this year. It was in the amount of $767,000 and covers the period through the end of 1977. These funds are to support activities in the fields of maternal and child health, education, women's programmes and a vital rural water supply programme.

In spite of the efforts of the Chief of our Area Office in Lusaka, which is responsible for UNICEF activities in Malawi, and in spite of the great needs of the country, implementation of these programmes has been rather slow. This is due to a shortage of trained national personnel. I have, therefore, asked the responsible field staff to review the situation and recommend appropriate measures to speed up the implementation process. This may result in the provision of additional technical assistance from various sources and, possibly, the payment of local costs where this would help to remove bottlenecks.

In addition, we are recommending to the UNICEF Executive Board by mail poll the approval of additional assistance for Malawi in the amount of $150,000 for the expansion of the water supply programme. I will also look into the possibility of submitting to the 1977 session of the Executive Board additional "noted" projects for Malawi to respond to the most pressing needs. The approval of such additional "noted" projects would doubtless be made conditional on our obtaining special contributions.

I would like to assure you that UNICEF is aware of and sympathetic to the economic plight of the Government of Malawi and that we will do what we can to seek additional resources which would permit us to accelerate the pace of UNICEF assistance to this country.

I will keep you advised of further developments.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Ambassador,

I wish to thank you for your letter of 15 July concerning the proposed concert on 12 December 1976 as a benefit to mark the thirtieth anniversary of UNICEF. I very much appreciate your Government's interest in raising funds for UNICEF and the impressive list of performers certainly augurs well for the success of this event.

I am pleased to be able to inform you that I have authorized the use of the General Assembly Hall for this concert. In this connexion, I also received a request from UNICEF that the Hall should be made available for this purpose.

As you are aware, the use of the Hall depends upon certain standard conditions being met. With regard to these, as well as other operational and administrative details, I suggest that your Mission consult directly with UNICEF who will be responsible for liaison with the appropriate offices within the Secretariat.

With warm personal regards,

Yours sincerely,

Kurt Waldheim

AUSTRALIAN MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS

15 July 1976

My dear Secretary-General,

You will recall that I wrote to you some weeks ago regarding the desire of the Australian Government to make a contribution to UNICEF by organising a concert of distinguished Australian artists of international stature in the General Assembly Hall on the occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of UNICEF.

I indicated at that time that before approaching the artists we would need an indication from you as to the availability of the Hall. However, as we understood that your decision might depend to some extent on the quality and reputation of the performers at the concert, we have been in touch with a number of artists on a tentative basis.

I am delighted to be able to inform you that Joan Sutherland, Marjorie Lawrence, Olivia Newton-John, Rolf Harris, The Seekers, Barry Crocker and others have already indicated that they would be available to perform at a concert in the General Assembly Hall on 12 December 1976. I am attaching for your convenient reference brief notes on the foregoing artists.

I can of course assure you that the concert would be professionally produced and managed. It is proposed, for example, that the television production should be done by Digby Wolfe, the well-known writer and producer.

I can also assure you that the benefit to UNICEF would be maximised. For a non-televised performance the artists would give their services free and all proceeds from the concert after deducting the fee for professional management and any statutory payments or taxes would be donated to UNICEF. If television coverage can be arranged, as we are confident, the artists would be paid a fee but any excess of receipts from the sale of television rights would also be donated to UNICEF, in addition to net box office proceeds.

Naturally the artists concerned, who have busy schedules and some of whom will have to complete their calendars for December in the very near future, have asked us to confirm as soon as possible that arrangements are proceeding for the concert. I should be most grateful therefore if you could confirm that the Assembly Hall will be available and authorise us to proceed with firm arrangements in consultation with your staff. If at all possible I would appreciate this confirmation within the next few days.

Yours sincerely,

UNICEF RUSHES AID FOR INDONESIAN EARTHQUAKE VICTIMS

(The following is reproduced as received from UNICEF, New York.)

The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) has airlifted $123,000 worth of blankets, shelter materials, medical supplies, and small pumps and water filters to help homeless children and mothers in earthquake-stricken areas of Indonesia. In New York today, the UNICEF Executive Director, Henry R. Labouisse, authorized release of $150,000 from the organization's Emergency Reserve to continue and expand these relief efforts.

The Indonesian Government estimates total damage caused by earthquakes in West Irian late last month and Bali last week at more than $200 million. In West Irian, the Government expects help to be needed for some 45,000 of the 80,000 population. In Bali, more than 550 people were killed, another 1,500 -- many of them children -- were injured, and about 450,000 were made homeless.

Blankets and shelter were an immediate need in stricken areas, some of them thousands of feet above sea level and hit by cold rains. As an immediate response, UNICEF flew in 10,000 blankets from Bangkok with 20,000 more to follow.

The affected areas of West Irian are isolated and mountainous, and access is difficult even by helicopter, hampering relief efforts. Devastating landslides have made it necessary to parachute most supplies so far.

A UNICEF team has been on the spot since last week identifying urgent needs for possible United Nations assistance. Following its first reports, UNICEF is flying in supplies of penicillin to deal with outbreaks of influenza. Shipments of other vaccines are to follow shortly.

Another team is in Bali, where immediate needs apart from blankets include drugs and vaccines to control potential outbreaks of disease.

Working closely with the Indonesian Government relief operation and co-ordinating with the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator (UNDRO), the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and other international assistance, UNICEF is flying in to the Balinese capital, Denpasar, a shipment of 13,000 blankets, sterilizing equipment, splint kits, needles and syringes, tents, hurricane lanterns, pumps and water filters. Water pipes already in the area have been diverted from regular long-term UNICEF assistance for the effort to provide clean drinking water for displaced populations.

Meanwhile, UNICEF's Djakarta office is working with the Government on plans to assist the rehabilitation of affected areas, particularly in vital services such as primary health care, village-level nutrition, community development and non-formal education.

Excellency,

I have the honour to inform you that the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany has decided to nominate Mrs. Brigitte Freyh, Member of the Bundestag and former Parliamentary State Secretary, as a candidate for the post of Executive Director of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Through the various responsible positions Mrs. Freyh has held over the years, she has acquired deep and sustained insight into the problems of the Third World. Her candidature is also in keeping with the United Nations resolutions calling for the employment of women in leading positions, in particular General Assembly resolution 3007 (XVII) of 18 December 1972.

In presenting this candidature, the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany would like to point out that the Federal Republic of Germany has been a member of UNICEF and a major contributor to its programme for twenty-four years. In 1975, the amount of the contribution was 22 million German Marks. For 1976, another increase is planned reflecting the vital interest of the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany in the work of UNICEF.

His Excellency
Dr. Kurt Waldheim
Secretary-General of the United Nations
New York

In view of its strong financial and moral support for UNICEF and for other United Nations agencies, the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany feels that the time has come for a representative of my country to assume the top executive position in such an organization. My Government submits that both its candidate, Mrs. Brigitte Freyh, and the post she has been nominated for, that of Executive Director of UNICEF, lend themselves especially well for this step.

I would be grateful, therefore, if you could give this candidature special consideration. The curriculum vitae of Mrs. Freyh is attached to this note.

Please, accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

ANTONIO ORDONEZ-PLAJA, CHAIRMAN OF UNICEF EXECUTIVE BOARD

Dr. Antonio Ordonez-Plaja of Colombia, who was elected today as Chairman of the Executive Board of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) for a one-year term beginning 1 August 1976, is now the Director of the Colombian Institute of Family Welfare. He was formerly the Minister of Public Health of Colombia.

Dr. Ordonez, who is the first Latin American to be elected to the post since 1962-1963 when Dr. Miguel E. Bustamente of Mexico served in that capacity, headed his country's delegation to this year's session of the Executive Board.

Born in Barcelona, Spain in 1919, he moved to Colombia at the age of 14. He worked his way through medical school by serving for five years as a milk-quality inspector for the Municipality of Bogota.

After graduating in medicine and surgery, and serving for two years as an oil company doctor and surgeon in the jungle of Colombia's Barrancabermeja area, he returned to Bogota, where he combined private practice with teaching and administrative positions at several universities.

He developed an interest in medical sociology and public health and as the first Chairman of the Colombian Population Institute, launched the first scientific study of the country's demography, stimulating interest in population questions.

Author of numerous scientific treatises, recipient of several awards and decorations, and member of many societies and associations, Dr. Ordonez has represented his country at many international conferences, most often as head of Colombia's delegation.

He first led Colombia's delegation to a UNICEF Executive Board session in 1969, and as a member of a group of experts helped to draft the World Plan of Action for the 1974 United Nations World Population Conference in Bucharest.

A short-term Consultant to the United Nations, the World Health Organization, and the Pan American Health Organization, Dr. Ordonez was also President of the twenty-seventh Pan American Health Conference in 1966, Vice-President of the American Public Health Association in 1968, and Vice-President of the twenty-first World Health Assembly in 1968.

He is married and has four children.

Executive Director of UNICEF

Mr

The Secretary-General was told by Mr. Labouisse on 19 May (at the reception for the UNICEF Executive Board) that Mr. Conzett, Chairman of the Board, would be asking to see him to inform him of his (Mr. Conzett's consultations with members of the Board regarding the appointment of an Executive Director in the light of Mr. Labouisse's contract coming to an end.

Mr. Labouisse stated that Mr. Conzett would indicate that the consensus would be in favour of extending Mr. Labouisse himself.

The Secretary-General asked him whether he would be prepared to serve and Mr. Labouisse's response was in the positive.

* * * *

Mr. Sherwood Moe, Special Assistant to Mr. Labouisse, called me on Friday, 21 May, to say he wanted to be sure that the Secretary-General (when he had talked with Mr. Labouisse) was quite clear on the point that Mr. Labouisse would only consider staying on as Executive Director if the extension were for a full year, namely until the end of 1977.

I informed the Secretary-General about this.

* * * *

Mr. Conzett, Chairman of the UNICEF Executive Board, came to see the Secretary-General on 24 May. He informed the Secretary-General that, as a result of his consultations with members of the Board, it would appear that they would favour an extension for Mr. Labouisse at least until July 1977.

The Secretary-General indicated that he would even consider extending him for a full year, namely until the end of 1977.

* * * *

The Secretary-General has directed that action with regard to Mr. Labouisse's extension should be taken after the current session of the UNICEF Executive Board has concluded.

I have informed Mr. Davidson to this effect.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

May 3, 1976

My dear Mr. Secretary General:

It has come to my attention that Mr. Donald MacDonald has been proposed for the position of Executive Director of the United Nations Children's Fund, which is to become vacant upon the retirement of Mr. Henry Labouisse.

It has been my privilege to know Mr. MacDonald for a quarter of a century. I have dealt with him during the years that I held senior positions in the United States Government, during the decade that I represented a major business corporation in projects in a number of countries with developing economies, and most recently in my position as President of the American National Red Cross. From whatever perspective I have viewed Mr. MacDonald, I have been impressed with his broad humanitarian outlook, his deep sensitivity to the problems of peoples striving to improve their standards of living, and his sense of justice and fairness and his objectivity to a wide variety of opinions.

I highly endorse his candidacy and hope that the Executive Board of UNICEF will recognize Mr. MacDonald's attributes. Their election of him would surely be in the interests of UNICEF and all whom that distinguished organization strives to serve.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Goodman:

Thank you for the generous contribution from the UN Art Club. We are pleased that you are again joining with UNICEF in our efforts to provide a better life for children in the developing countries.

At the opening of the 1975 UNICEF Board Session, Mr. Henry Labouisse, Executive Director of UNICEF, impressed upon us that it is "both financially feasible and economically necessary to foster programs which will provide the young generation with the basic essentials on which to build decent and constructive lives." Your annual contribution will enable UNICEF to assist governments in developing basic services for their children and to demonstrate that helping children and improving their environment are one and the same cause.

Again, thank you for your expression of concern for the world's children. We look forward each year to this particularly enjoyable event, which does much to create a feeling of goodwill among all UN personnel. If at any time you would like more information about UNICEF's programs and needs, please let us know.

Sir,

On behalf of the United Nations Art Club, I should like to inquire if you would be good enough to preside at the opening of the Twenty-Sixth Annual Exhibition of the United Nations Art Club for the benefit of UNICEF, which will be held from 6 April through 14 May 1976.

Again this year over one-hundred paintings and sculptures executed by Delegation and Secretariat members will be exhibited.

The proceeds of this exhibition go to UNICEF. Over the last twenty-five years, the exhibitions have raised about $70,000 for UNICEF. Attached are copies of letters from UNICEF and the United States Committee for UNICEF regarding last year's exhibition.

The opening takes place on Tuesday, 6 April at 2:30 p.m. in the Public Lobby of the General Assembly Building.

You would be the only speaker. As President of the Art Club, I will introduce you after a few words of appreciation for all those who have helped us with the Exhibition.

Hoping, as in the past years, that you will consider this request favourably, I remain,

18 February 1976

Dear Mr. Wright,

Following up on our conversation of last week I am pleased to inform you that arrangements have been made with the United Nations Visitors Service for the Boy Scouts group tour of the United Nations on Saturday, 21 February 1976.

After you have checked in at the visitor's lobby of the UN building at 10 a.m., a duty officer will escort the group to a designated Conference Room where they will be addressed by Mr. Mark N.F. Robinson, Special Assistant to the Under-Secretary-General, Office of the Under-Secretary General for Political and General Assembly Affairs. The group will then be taken on a guided tour of the UN. A UN tour confirmation card is enclosed. Unfortunately, there are no film showings on Saturday, however, a little extra time is visually welcome after a tour. A section has been reserved in the UN cafeteria for luncheon at 12 noon.

We will then expect to see the group at UNICEF headquarters at approximately 1:30 p.m. Please come to Mr. Charnow's office and we will proceed from there to our Conference Room for a presentation by members of the staff.

Looking forward to seeing you on Saturday.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Jack:

Here is the information in connection with the visit of our 1976 REPORT TO THE NATION DELEGATION. This is per our meeting and phone calls to date. The date is February 21, 1976. We recognize that this is on a Saturday which may make it a little more difficult to set up.

The group will be 20 in number. They will be the winners of the nation-wide Reader's Digest speaking contest, Boy Scouts of America Youth Representatives, and the leaders in charge of the delegation.

The order of events will be as details may be worked out. As we discussed, here are the arrangements for which we will need your help.

U.N. Secretary General - Meet with him so that our delegation can make his acquaintance. Also, to hear first-hand, some of the things being accomplished by the United Nations.

Luncheon - At the U.N. cafeteria with each member paying for his own, and to sit together in a designated area.

U.N. Building - A conducted tour of the facilities, cost of which to be donated or if not, we will pay the fees.

UNICEF Story - A discussion with one or more of your people about your work and its relation to Scouting.

On January 15, 1976, I expect to be in New York City. I will check in with you at this time so that we can share a progress report.

Mr. John Chainow

I am sending you enclosed the copy of a letter from Mr. Urs-Carl Regli (Switzerland) together with the original deposit certificates for 31.634.- Swiss Francs issued to UNICEF for various countries and entities as listed in the letter (page 7). According to Mr. Regli's explanations, these deposit certificates entitle UNICEF to receive the money from the bank. He says in his letter that he donated the amount as a "sign of his gratitude towards the United Nations Organization".

The main part of the letter deals with Mr. Regli's concern and ideas with regard to a solution of the Middle East problem. It has been forwarded to the competent Department.

I would ask UNICEF to reply to Mr. Regli as far as his donation is concerned.

Sehr geehrter Herr Generalsekretär,

Die UNO-Resolution, die den Zionismus dem Nationalismus gleichsetzt, stimmt mich traurig. Nicht etwa der Verlautbarung wegen als vielmehr der Grund, dass jedes Jahr das Thema Palästina erneut an der UNO-GV zur Debatte stehen muss.

Als einfacher Angestellter, Bürger eines freien, demokratischen und neutralen Staates, gestatte ich mir, Ihnen einige Überlegungen mitzuteilen, die mich seit langem beschäftigen. Da ich von diesen Gedanken ohne Schuldgefühl nicht loskomme, glaube ich, dass sie auch der UNO von Interesse sein könnten:

Im Jahre 1815 beim Wiener Kongress, der ersten Völkerversammlung der Neuzeit und Ursprung des UNO-Gedankens hat die damalige Heilige Allianz (Österreich als Vertreterin der römisch-katholischen - Preussen als Repräsentant der Reformierten- und Russland als orthodoxe Christenheit) auf Empfehlung des damaligen österreichischen Aussenministers Metternich dem Kongress die Veranlassung gegeben, im Interesse der Sicherheit Europas der Schweiz die Neutralität abzuverlangen. Dieser geniale Entscheid hat dazu geführt, dass die damals sehr kriegerische und revolutionäre Eidgenossenschaft sich zu einem Staatsgebilde entwickeln konnte, der ihr darauf einen seit mehr als 160-jährigen Frieden in Unabhängigkeit und ohne fremde Einmischung gestattet und immer noch anhält. Von einem durch Krieg und Plünderung heimgesuchten und unreinigen Staatenbund entstand die wohlhabendste Nation als Bundesstaat, demokratisch und neutral.

Urs-Carl Regli

Selbst Lenin, der die Schweiz gut kannte und viel Kritik an ihr geübt hat, nahm die Praxis der Zusammensetzung des Parlamentes aus einem 2-Kammersystem als Muster für die Sowjetunion.

Die Eidgenossenschaft, seit der Umordnung des habsburg-öster. Statthalters Gessler 1291 durch den Nationalhelden Wilhelm Tell in Fehde mit Österreich ist seit dem Wiener Kongress mit diesem Nachbarstaat durch eine lückenlose und echte Freundschaft verbunden. Ich selbst hatte Gelegenheit dies zu sehen und zu fühlen während meiner Studienjahre im Kolleg Stella Matutina in Feldkirch / Vbg. Die anderen Nachbarn leben in einem nicht minder guten Verhältnis mit dem neutralen Zwing.

Zum Wohle der Welt wurden das rote Kreuz (1863), der Weltpostverein (1874) und der Völkerbund nach dem 1. Weltkrieg auf dem Boden der Schweiz gegründet.

Wie so oft, regist man gerne den Dank für ein unbezahlbares Geschenk. Diesen möchte ich heute in der Stunde der Bewährung der UNO allen Völkern aussprechen.

Jedermann trägt mit an der Verantwortung für den Frieden; der Wille der Völker kommt zum Ausdruck in der UN-GV. Religion und Gott sind fremde Worte im Gremium der Weltpolitik geworden, doch fühlt sich ein Mensch verlassen, ist es ein altes Naturgesetz, sich seines Gottes und Herrn zu erinnern und zu ihm zu beten.

3 Weltreligionen betrachten Jerusalem als heilige Stadt:

- die Juden	ca	14,50 Mio.
- die Christen	ca	1.114,60 Mio.
- die Mohammedaner	ca	520,00 Mio.
insgesamt	ca	1649,10 Mio (1971)
~ 50%		der Weltbevölkerung.

Alle nennen sich Kinder Gottes und erheben somit Anspruch als Erben der Verheissungen. So das angebetete Wesen in unseren Augen gerecht und unfehlbar ist, sind alle gleich vor ihm. Jeder Vater will Frieden in seinem Hause und dieses Haus heisst Jerusalem, auch Zion oder El Quds genannt. Nach altem Recht sorgt der Älteste der Erben bei Abwesenheit des Vaters für das Wohlergehen aller. In unserem Falle Israel. Ihm soll die Verwaltung der heiligen Stadt obliegen. Es soll besorgt sein für die würdige Erhaltung der Stätte Gottes. Seinen beiden Mitbrüdern soll jedoch auch ein Plätzchen zustehen. Die Zionisten werden gebeten

- den Felsendom den Mohammedanern
- die El-Grabeskirche der gesamten Christenheit als exterritoriales Eigentum zu überlassen. Dies im Hinblick darauf, daß die Welt erkenne, dass das Heil von Zion ausgeht, und die Völker der Erde dem vielgeplagten und geschmähten Judentum den Frieden schenken mögen. Die Fürbitten der Pilger gereiche zum Segen Gottes, der sich aller erbarmt. In Liebe und gegenseitiger Wertschätzung soll Weihnachten 1975 ein wahres Fest der Freude werden, wie die

Welt es seit 2000 Jahren beinahe nicht mehr so.

Zion als heilige Stätte der Begegnung Gottes bedarf jedoch auch geistlicher Oberhäupter, die über Vorschriften und Gesetze achten, damit keine in der Verschiedenheit der derzeitigen Auffassung gekränkt werde. Der Rat soll sich so oft als notwendig zusammenfinden und als Hoher Rat bezeichnet werden. Er tagt unter dem Vorsitz eines Oberrabbi. Es sollen ihm folgende Mitglieder angehören

- alle jüdischen aschkenasischen und sephardischen Oberrabbiner
- alle katholischen, apostolischen Bischöfe und Erzbischöfe der Christen sowie 1 Pastor jeder reformierten Glaubensrichtung, die in Jerusalem vertreten.
- der Großmufti zusammen mit den Vorkern der islamischen Sekten, vertreten in Jerusalem.

Der Präsident gibt den Stichentscheid.

je 1 Oberrabbiner
1 Erzbischof (cath. od. kath.)
+ der Großmufti haben VETO-Recht

Der Staatspräsident von Israel kann eine jeweilige Ernennung eines kirchlichen Oberhauptes zurückweisen, wenn dadurch Friede und Ordnung gefährdet sind.

Das 2. Problem ist Palästina. Nach der Regelung in Jerusalem kann sofort mit diesem Traktandum begonnen werden:

Israel weiss was man ihm heisst. Mehr als 2000 Jahre waren die Juden ohne Staat, weshalb ein langer und dauerhafter Friede das Wichtigste ist. Um den gegnerischen Wind aus den Segeln zu nehmen, sollte Israel unverlasst werden härter vor Ausbruch von neuen Zustimmigkeiten mit den Nachbarstaaten folgendes zu vereinbaren:

Palästina: Sobald die PLO als überflüssig betrachtet werden kann, ist das ehemalige Cisjordanien ohne Jerusalem den Palästinensern zu Eigentum zu überlassen. Folgende Sicherheiten sind jedoch erforderlich:

- Palästina wird ein unabhängiger Staat, neutral und verzichtet auf weitere Gebietsansprüche.
- Palästina wird entmilitarisiert d.h. die unter dem Namen PLO etc. kämpfenden Truppen geben ihre Waffen dem UNO-Kommando unter General Svitlasno und treten in eine Zollunion mit Israel.
- Dafür garantiert Israel die dauernde Unabhängigkeit Palästinas ohne jedoch Truppen auf dessen Territorium zu halten.
- Palästina verzichtet auf eine Armee gegen entsprechende Nicht-Einmischung arabischer Staaten.
- Palästina wird ein Recht zu freier Mitbenützung eines israelischen Mittelmeerkhafens und den Hafen Eilat am Roten Meer eingeräumt gegen Garantie der Benützung seiner Verkehrswege durch Israel.
- Die übrigen arabischen Staaten geben hierfür ihre Garantie.

Urs-Carl Regli

Syrien: erhält Golanhöhe zurück unter folgenden Bedingungen:

Golanhöhe wird entmilitarisiert. Israel wird als Staat in den nach Palästina eingräumten und gezogenen Grenzen vollumfänglich für immer anerkannt. Israel erhält dafür das Recht in Kuneitja einen militärischen Beobachterposten mit attachéakkreditierung in Damaskus. Israel erhält von Syrien Handelsverlechtigungen.

Jordanien: verzichtet auf ehemaliges Cisjordanien zugunsten Palästina und anerkennt den Status der beiden Staaten Israel und Palästina.

Jordanien erhält das Recht der Mitbenützung eines israelischen Mittelmeerhafens gegen Einräumung von Handelsverlechtigungen.

Ägypten: verzichtet auf weitere Forderungen als diejenigen im ägyptisch-israelischen Entflechtungsabkommen.

Ägypten räumt Israel Handelsverlechtigungen ein.

Die gesamten arabischen und befreundeten Staaten anerkennen die neue Regelung, insbesondere die Garantie von Israel. Diplomatische Anerkennung ohne Nichttuttsrecht gegenseitig. Behauptung der vollen Glaubensfreiheit und Respektierung des religiösen und ethnischen Zionismus.

Garantie des gesamten Abkommens durch die UNO-Vollversammlung, nach Waffenübergabe der Palästinenser.

Urs-Carl Regli

Stichtage: Regelung Jerusalem 24. Dez. 1975
Palästina 1. Jan. 1976.

Somit würde Libanon entlastet als neutraler Staat, dem Wunsch des Friedens entsprochen, Palästina ein eigener Staat mit Hauptstadt Nablus, der UNO-Resolution von 1947 entsprochen. Die Lösung muss in New York gefunden werden, da hier alle beisammen sind. König Chaleb aus Saudi Arabien kann das Versprechen seines hochverehrten Vorgängers König Faisals einlösen und seine Gebiete im Felsendom verichten. Israel wird die Freude der Freundschaft aller Völker zuteil. Die UNO gewinnt an Glaubwürdigkeit. Dem jungen Staaten der dritten Welt wird Gelegenheit gegeben selbst mitzumischen als zurechnungsfähige.

Es ist noch ein Wunsch diese Lösung, doch keine kommt dabei zu kurz. Als Zeichen der eingangs erwähnten Dankbarkeit bitte ich sie, der UNICEF folgende Beträge auszuhandigen:

	Israel	Fr. 3000.-
	Ägypten	Fr. 3000.-
