proposed

Dear Madame Fréchette:

It is with his deepest love, gratitude and respect for your life of service to the heart and soul of the United Nations, that Sri Chinmoy requests the honour of presenting you with the Lifting Up the World With a Oneness-Heart Award, an award given to individuals of inspiration and dedication from all walks of life.

We can assure you that the presentation of this award would be brief, only 20 minutes, and at your convenience in terms of date and location. Sri Chinmoy, who has held twice-weekly prayer and meditation sessions at the United Nations since 1970, will make it a priority within his own schedule to facilitate your receiving this award. A possible venue of convenience could be the UN Plaza Hotel, across the street from the United Nations, where in the past Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Canada's Foreign Affairs Minister Bill Graham received this award.

Sri Chinmoy has presented this international heart-to-heart award to many, many world figures including Mother Teresa; President Nelson Mandela; Rt. Hon. Jean Chretien; former UN High Commissioner for Human Rights Mary Robinson, Canadian Senators Maria Chaput, Shirley Maheu and Mac Harb; and Valery Gergiev, Artistic Director and Principal Conductor of St. Petersburg's Kirov Opera. Like yourself, all of these great individuals have in their own fields of endeavour contributed to the transformation of the world.

On numerous occasions, Sri Chinmoy has expressed his love and gratitude to the United Nations for the lofty vision and ideals for which it stands. To quote a talk that Sri Chinmoy gave in Russia in June 2004:

*"The United Nations is not a mere whisper
Of world-oneness-hope,
But an ever-strengthening
And an ever-spreading promise
For the transformation of humanity's mind."*

2.

Madame Fréchette, by offering your heart's concern and your life's capacity for the betterment of the world in and through your role as the Deputy Secretary-General of the United Nations, you are serving not only this vital world organisation but the whole of humanity.

It is therefore with his deepest appreciation for your unique service and sacrifice to the world community, that Sri Chinmoy would extremely grateful to have the opportunity to present to you the Lifting Up The World With a Oneness-Heart Award

We sincerely believe that you would find the informal, media-free ceremony to be uniquely inspiring and deeply moving. As previously mentioned, the award presentation would be brief and accommodate your busy schedule in every possible way. We would be delighted if you could suggest a date and time convenient to you in the upcoming months in order that Sri Chinmoy may make arrangements in his own schedule to ensure that you receive this award. However, if it is not possible at this time for you to do this, please be assured that with minimal notice Sri Chinmoy will do all that he possibly can to present you with this award at a time of your convenience.

We thank you for your kind consideration of this invitation and look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience. Until then, may we offer you our heartfelt prayers and best wishes for continued success in your vital work.

Sincerely,

Ms. Sanchita Fleming

Mr. Yohannes Mengesha
 Officer-in-Charge
 Office of the Deputy Secretary-General

Dear Mr. Mengesha:

With your kind permission, I am contacting you with respect to the enclosed invitation to the Deputy Secretary-General to receive the Lifting Up the World with a Oneness-Heart Award from Sri Chinmoy. Would you be so kind as to bring this invitation to her attention on our behalf.

As you may recall, we extended this invitation to the Deputy Secretary-General in June 2004; however, Madame Fréchette was unable to accept the honour at that time and asked that we convey her deepest thanks to Sri Chinmoy who has served the United Nations since 1970.

We fully appreciate how busy the Deputy Secretary-General's schedule is and, therefore, we wish to assure her that if she would like to receive this award, Sri Chinmoy will do all that he possibly can, with minimal notice, to present her with this award at a time of her convenience.

Thank you once again for your kind assistance in bringing this invitation to the attention of the Deputy Secretary-General, and we look forward to her reply.

Sincerely,

 Ms. Sanchita Fleming
