

MAINICHI SHIMBUN Hiroshima January 6, 1986

PEACE CONCERT

An audience of 300 were greatly moved by the Peace Concert given by an Indian meditation Master, Sri Chinmoy, in the Prefecture Cultural Centre in Hiroshima on January 5.

Sri Chinmoy has composed over 5,000 devotional songs and influenced many popular musicians, such as Carlos Santana. The Peace Concert was given in Hiroshima, a city of international peace, to honour the 40th Anniversary of the U.N. Sri Chinmoy has been holding meditations twice a week at the U.N. for over 15 years, stressing that world peace will arise from inner peace developed through meditation. Profound melodies performed on Indian instruments and flute echoed in the hall, only 200 metres away from the memorial A-bomb dome.

"Upon hearing the haunting melodies for peace, my soul was deeply touched and consoled," commented a 55-year-old lady from Hiroshima.

MAINICHI SHIMBUN Hiroshima January 6, 1986

PEACE CONCERT

An audience of 300 were greatly moved by the Peace Concert given by an Indian meditation Master, Sri Chinmoy, in the Prefecture Cultural Centre in Hiroshima on January 5.

Sri Chinmoy has composed over 5,000 devotional songs and influenced many popular musicians, such as Carlos Santana. The Peace Concert was given in Hiroshima, a city of international peace, to honour the 40th Anniversary of the U.N. Sri Chinmoy has been holding meditations twice a week at the U.N. for over 15 years, stressing that world peace will arise from inner peace developed through meditation.

Profound melodies performed on Indian instruments and flute echoed in the hall, only 200 metres away from the memorial A-bomb dome. "Upon hearing the haunting melodies for peace. my soul was deeply touched and consoled," commented a 55-year-old lady from Hiroshima.