We believe that man cannot be full not in each one is an infinite being when the highest and true to the highest action is God.
His incarnation, God,
spread into person, it has appeared into this world, his appearing was into revealing light and his appearing really into all existing things.

A black and white photograph of three men standing indoors, holding a large banner. The man on the left is wearing a light-colored polo shirt and trousers. The man in the middle is wearing a light-colored short-sleeved shirt and trousers. The man on the right is wearing a traditional Indian kurta and dhoti. They are holding a dark banner with white text. In the background, there is a white wall and a potted plant.
