

You are cordially invited to attend
a programme honouring

INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY

Tuesday, 4 September

1 - 2 p.m.

Dag Hammarskjold Auditorium

Guest speakers will include:

--- a representative from World Education

World Education is a private, non-profit agency founded to assist Literacy House in India. For the past decade, its goal has been to strengthen those private and government agencies that work directly with educationally disadvantaged adults and young people in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the United States.

Sponsored by Sri Chinmoy Meditation at the United Nations

4/Sept/79

INTRODUCTION TO,

International Literacy Day

Began as result of the "World Conference of Ministers of Education on the Eradication of Illiteracy," held under the auspices of UNESCO in 1965.

The General Conference of UNESCO at its 14th Session proclaimed September 8 as International Literacy Day. In the host country this year it will be celebrated a week from yesterday september 10, since september 8 falls on a Saturday.

We will begin our programme with a meditation lead by Sri Chinmoy who himself has is the Author of nearly 400 books which have been translated into many languages.

CRISCITIELLO

We are happy to have with us a representative of World Education Ms. Sue
Some of you might recall that Dr. Kobes, Director of Programs for World Education INC. addressed us in March of 1978 during our programme honouring The Peace Core and International Cooperation efforts such as the U.N. Volunteers.

I remind you that World Education is a private non-profit agency founded in 1951 to assist Literacy house in India. It provides professional assistance in non-formal education techniques and has worked in over 45 countries

If you plan for a year, sow a seed.

If you plan for a decade, plant a tree.

If you plan for a century, educate the people.

I am pleased to present MS SUE CRISCITIELLO

will show →